New Year Bargains at W. H. Houghton & Co.'s

After the rush of the holiday trade comes the natural reaction. Business in all its branches is more or less stannant, and merchants are anxious to keep up their regular volume of trade, and they of course ofter extra indiscensents in prices to catch the eagle eye of all intelligent and observing purchasers, who are ever on the alert for extra values and hargains. Mesars W. H. Houghton & Co., at 1218 and 1220 F street northwest, are offering for thirty days just such inducements to the public. In any department in their seven-story building goods will be offered at prices that the enterprising buyers of this city will not allow to pass without an effort to take every advantage of.

FAVORING THE ELECTIONS BILL. A Mass-Meeting Held at Asbury Church

"The dim, religious quiet" that usually permeates the atmosphere of Asbury M, Church was disturbed last night by the violent and impassioned utterances of Senate.

When the meeting opened at 8 o'clock the church was crowded to the doors.

When the meeting opened at 8 o'clock the church was crowded to the doors. Governor Gleeves of South Carolina, chairman of the committee on the appointment of vice-presidents, announced that the following gentlemen had been selected to act in that capacity to the meeting.

After the announcement had been made Secretary Walport of the Painters' As-sembly—The house-painters' and deco-rators' strike, which commenced several months ago, is still in existence. We are working in a months ago, is still in existence. We are working in a quiet, systematic manner, and to-day we have the same number of painters at work at nine hours a day as we had at this time last year. Of course during December and January comparatively few painters are employed on account of the inclemency of the weather. No, very few of the association or ring, or whatever they call it, of Master Painters and Dectorators that was formed to look out the striking painters, have given in to Thomas Walker, Alabama; Hon. Robert Smalls, South Carolina.

After the announcement had been made Delegate Dawson addressed the audicuce, denouncing the report of the Governor, which caused considerable excitement among the other delegates. After a vigorous protest from the chairman, Recorder J. M. Townsend, quiet was restored and the meeting progressed smoothly until Mr. Sembey of Maryland expressed some very strong opinions against the bill in question, which again aroused the ire of its supporters.

At last the hisses, groans and other sounds of disapprobation were hushed and the delegates got down to business.

They were addressed by Colonel Perry Carson, Mr. Charles H. Morris, Mr. Smith, ex-Minister to Liberia, and others, all protesting against the Republican Senators that antagonized the measure.

A WILD WEST CELEBRATION. John Davis Tries to Paint the Town and is Fined.

John Davis arrived in town yesterday from the Indian Territory, and immediately started out on what might be called a Wild West celebration. He hired a cab and visited the saloons passball troubles will be settled at that meeting.

President Thurman, since his arrival here, has consulted with Messis. Bennett, Scanlon and White, regarding the establishment of an American Association chub in Washington. He is of the opinion that Rochester and Toledo will not be in the Association next year, and, when the retirement of Rochester is completed, Washington will take its place.

The Toledo Club will probably be succeeded by a team from Chicago.

Mr. Thurman is not prepared as yet to say anything regarding the composition of the team at Washington, but he is assured that the reputation established by the old Nationals will be well sustained by the new team which will also bear that name. "Washington," President Thurman said, "is regarded among baseball men as one of the best paying cities in the United States and the question of finances has been settled to the satisfaction of the other members of the Association." He hired a cab and visited the saloons on Seventh street in rapid succession and spent his money lavishly. When near the corner of Seventh and S street he took a 38-calibre revolver from his pocket and began discharging the contents of the chambers in the air. After running the cab for some distance Sergeant Daily and officer Ellsworth arrested Davis and took him to the Eighth Precinct station.

He told the Lieutenant that he came here to paint the town and was willing to pay for it. He left $65 collateral for appearance in the Police Court. Judge Miller this morning ordered $50 of the amount deposited to the credit of the District for a violation of the law against carrying concealed weapons.

LOCAL TALKS.

What Men, Prominent and Otherwise, Find to Interest Them.

Detective Haff—There are fewer crimicals in the District of Columbia at present Detective Raff—There are fewer criminals in the District of Columbia at present than at any time for several years. Those who are not doing time either in Albany or the District jail seem to have hunted up new fields for work. In looking over the list of robberies for the past year you will find that the Hoffa robbery on Seventh street is the only very large one that has been reported. As a rule the robberies are of a petty nature and committed, I think, by young criminals who are growing up. Once in awhile an old offender will bob up in his old haunts, but he is soon spotted and watched pretty closely. The moment we think he is doing any work he is run in on suspicion.

Mr. Eph Cormman—The boys in the Government Printing Office feel good over the fact that the President has approved the bill granting the night force extra compensation for their work. A night job in the Government Printing Office is not an easy one, and the pay is too small.

the jury summoned to inquire into the death of Albert S. Sakers at the Centre Market on Wednesday returned a verdict that no blame could be attached to any one for the accident. They found that the young man had attempted to run the elevator in direct violation of the rules of the Market Company, and was alone responsible for his death. It was, however, recommended by the jury that the company employ competent men instead of boys to run the elevators.

trouble, and the discussion was participated in by a number of ladies and gentlemen.

The business committee appointed at the morning session reported resolutions which, after being amended, were adopted.

The resolutions recite that the present Indian trouble is partly to be found in the inevitable opposition of the chiefs and the anti-progressive and anti-Christian elements to the present civilizing tendencies, and they rejoice that the Administration has not yielded to the demand for the transfer of the Indians to the War Department. They oppose the removing of valuable officers in the Indian service solely for political reasons, and urge the retention of such men without regard to their political opinions.

The resolutions also urge the extension of civil service reform regulations to the subordinate appointments to the Indian Department, and also a continued increase in the Congressional appropriations for eduction under a system of adequate common school instruction. The Indian tribes should be induced to accept lands in severalty, and the Government should afford every facility for securing them in the full and undisputed possession of their land. our nine-hour demand, but nevertheless our men, or nearly all are at work, or will be in a short time. I do not believe that there are many non-union men from other cities, or, as they are called, foreign-ers, who are now employed by the master painters here. This is owing to the man-ner in which we scooped them in and sent them home on their arrival.
